

Quiz #5

CORRECT ANSWERS ARE HIGHLIGHTED!

1. Positive punishment involves introducing a(n) _____ consequence for a certain behavior, and negative punishment involves withdrawing a(n) _____ consequence for a certain behavior.

- a) desirable; undesirable
- b) desirable; desirable
- c) undesirable; undesirable
- d) undesirable; desirable

2. Learning associations between one's own behavior and resulting events is to _____ as learning associations between events one doesn't control is to _____.

- a) classical conditioning; operant conditioning
- b) observational learning; latent learning
- c) operant conditioning; classical conditioning
- d) latent learning; observational learning

3. According to the text, learning involves:

- a) a change in behavior due to experience
- b) a reduction in extrinsic motivation
- c) the ability to think abstractly
- d) the development of prosocial behavior

4. The occurrence of spontaneous recovery suggests that during extinction:

- a) the CS is eliminated
- b) the CR is suppressed
- c) the CR is eliminated
- d) the CS is suppressed

5. Watson and Rayner's study of Little Albert demonstrated how specific fears:

- a) may be produced with classical conditioning
- b) can interfere with the process of learning
- c) can be used as negative reinforcers
- d) are acquired through observational learning